LIFE IS A JOURNEY

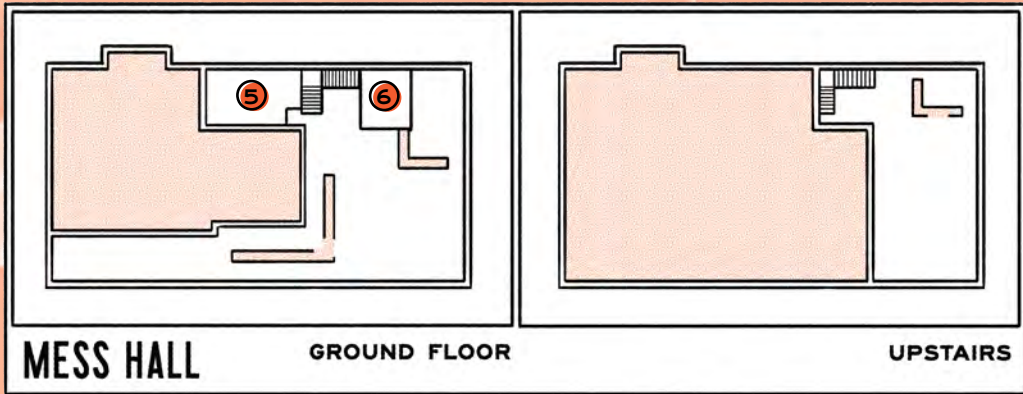

Ladybird Grove & Mess Hall is an outdoor-oriented restaurant located in the heart of the Old Fourth Ward in Atlanta, GA. As the base camp for the urban explorer, you can find us at mile marker 9.25 on the Beltline.

Whether you plan on wetting your whistle with our myriad selection of craft beers and hand-crafted cocktails or satiating that appetite after a long day of scouting the wilderness of ATL, we are here to outfit any occasion.

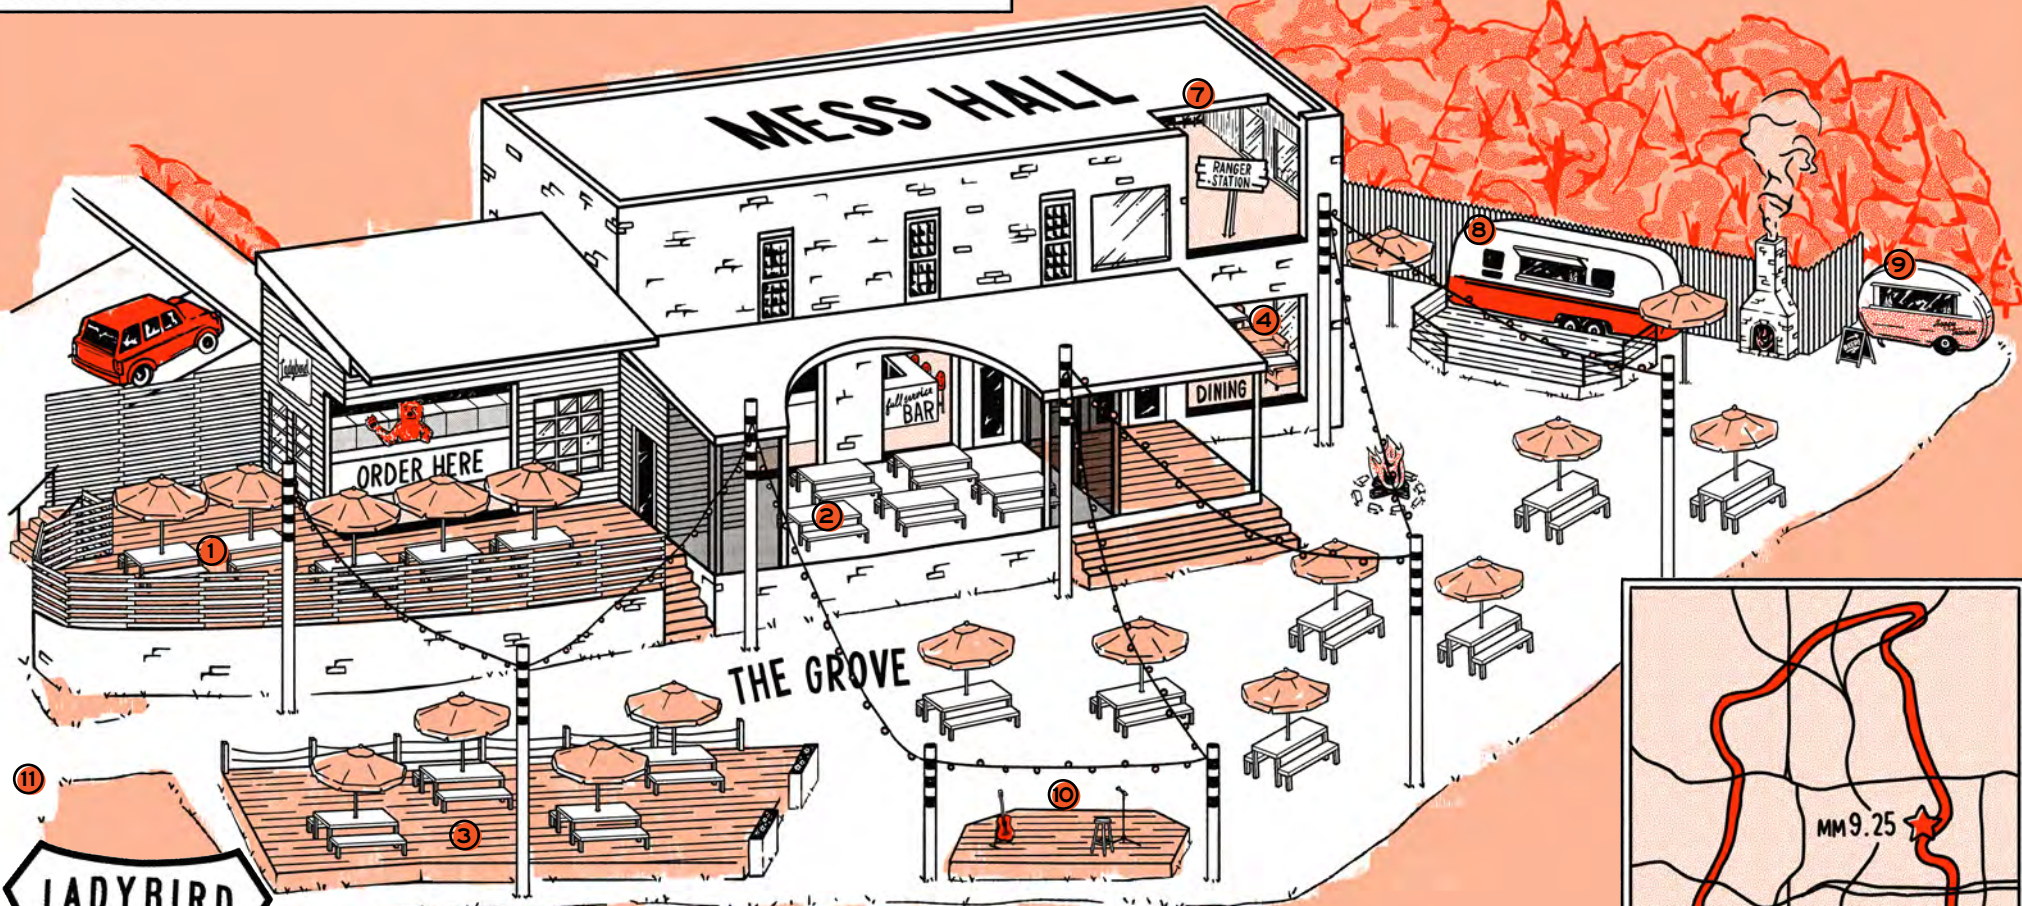

For your group's next excursion, you can set up camp in any of our spacious sites. We offer unique environments to choose from including the scenic Deck on the Grove for sightseeing and group pow-wows. Our newest addition, Black Bear Bar, offers a cozy setting for after work

Happy hours. Or, you can always spread your wings on our upper patio with idyllic views of the treasured Beltline path. Last but not least, Ladybird Grove & Mess Hall is available for private buyouts for you and your guests to have exclusive access to one of the most desired locales in the city.

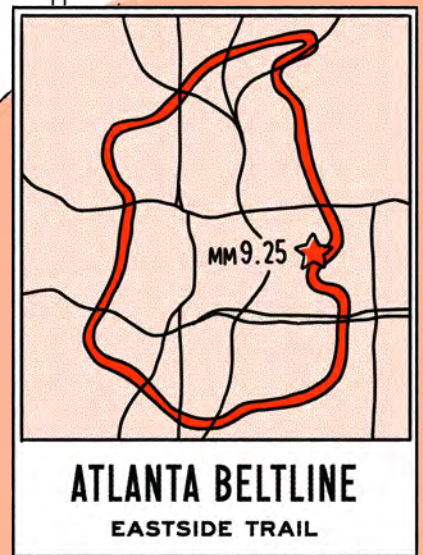

At Ladybird Grove and Mess Hall, we host all types of events, including cocktail receptions, dinners, fundraisers, business luncheons, and happy hour gatherings. We strive to create a versatile landscape for any occasion. In the following pages, you will find our menu selections for food and beverage, photos with detailed information on each space, and our event policies.
